Pastor Mark's Message

1 Timothy 2:5 - 7 (NASB) ⁵For there is one God, and one mediator also between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, ⁶who gave Himself as a ransom for all, the testimony given at the proper time. ⁷For this I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth, I am not lying) as a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

Do you know what happens on October 31? Some of you are going to immediately start thinking about costumes, candy, and plastic jack-o-lanterns filling your neighborhood. Others might be thinking about a local school or church carnival or fall festival. Perhaps, you will think about the Greet-n-Treat Bags that we will be putting together and providing for you to do outreach throughout your neighborhood.

All of those answers are of course correct. But, I am not thinking about any of those things. I am thinking about the 500th anniversary of the protestant reformation. At least, it will have been 500 years since Martin Luther wrote out 95 arguments against the principles and practices of the Roman Catholic Church, and nailed them to the door of Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany.

You may not know much history of the reformation. You may not feel a connection to what occurred 500 years ago that resulted in a protest of the established church of the day. There are things of shame from both sides of the chasm that erupted. But, there are things worthy of remembering that came as a result of not only Luther's stand, but many who had come before Him, and the many who have followed since.

As I think of why I want to commemorate this year as a unique and special occasion of remembrance, I think of the verse I printed above. The reformation was and is principally about Jesus Christ.

The reformation reignited the concept of justification by faith alone in Christ alone. He is the one mediator between God and man. We do not celebrate an event by a man, we celebrate the fact that when this man took his hammer to a nail and hung up a list, he reminded all of us that it was the nails that hung Jesus to the cross that made it possible for us to receive forgiveness.

As Paul writes in verse seven from 1 Timothy 2, it is this message for which he was appointed a preacher, as have I. This is the message to preach and proclaim. It is the message of the Bible, from beginning to end. The reformation brought about renewed interest and the possibility of God's Word being available in the language of the people. We should celebrate the fact that out of the reformation came not only the desire to read and know God's Word, but the work to make it possible. And we should keep pressing forward until God's Word is available for every language on earth.

Another reason to celebrate the protestant reformation this October 31st is that Jesus is our mediator. We do not need a priest to go to God for us, because Jesus is the Great High Priest. He has granted us free access to God, and He intercedes for us at all times. We do not need a person or a ritual, those 95 statements remind all of us that Jesus is all we need for access to God.

If you want to understand more about the reformation consider attending the Equip Class that will be led by Pastor Aaron on the reformation that will begin October 8. Click on this link to go to read more about this class and others: <http://chbchurch.org/ministries/equip-classes/>

Or purchase a book on the subject. Here are two suggestions. “Here I Stand: A Life of Martin Luther,” by Roland Bainton. Click on the title to be taken to Amazon.com to order this book.

Another book worth considering is “Theology of the Reformers,” by Timothy George.

Happy reading, and Happy Reformation Day!

By His Grace and For His Glory,
Pastor Mark D. DeMoss

Qué es convicción?

Convicción es creer con fe a lo que Hebreos 11.1-3 dice: Es, pues, la fe la certeza de lo que se espera, la convicción de lo que no se ve. Porque por ella alcanzaron buen testimonio los antiguos. Por la fe entendemos haber sido constituido el universo por la palabra de Dios, de modo que lo que se ve fue hecho de lo que no se veía. Tener convicción es justamente lo que hicieron los apóstoles Pedro y Juan al desafiar a las autoridades de la siguiente forma: Mas Pedro y Juan respondieron diciéndoles: Juzgad si es justo delante de Dios obedecer a vosotros antes que a Dios; 20 porque no podemos dejar de decir lo que hemos visto y oído (Hechos 4.19,20).

Tener convicción es hablar de Jesucristo justamente como lo hizo Esteban en medio de las amenazas de los dirigentes hasta el grado de ser martirizado antes que salir defraudado (Hechos 7.1-60) porque estaba convencido de que Dios cumple sus promesas “No te dejaré ni te desampararé” (Deut.31.8) esto es la autenticidad de un líder que sabe poner su confianza en y morir por Jesucristo. La convicción es la base para el liderazgo (lo asegura Albert Mohler). El líder se preocupa por la estrategia, por la visión, por la formación de equipos, por la motivación y por delegar responsabilidades pero el impulso de su corazón y de su mente están en su convicción.

Martin Lutero, el gran reformador cristiano, quien estaba tan convencido de la autoridad de la Biblia dijo: “Me mantengo firme en la Escritura. No puedo hacer otra cosa. Que Dios me ayude”. Esto es convicción. Esto es liderazgo. El punto de partida de un buen liderazgo se enfoca en las verdades eternas de Dios reveladas en las sagradas Escrituras para que lo que el cristiano realice tenga sentido y enmarque nuestra comprensión e impulse nuestra acción para liderar (como dijo Pablo) “en plena certidumbre” (1 Tesalonicenses 1.5). Sin convicción nada importa como tampoco importa lo que se transmita. Los líderes con convicción impulsan a la acción porque les impulsa su pasión en su profunda convicción.

Is God Done?

“Who among all these does not know that the hand of the Lord has done this, in whose hand is the life of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind?”

Job 12:9-10

We have been looking at God’s work in the lives of the young and the old in Scripture. These stories of regular men and women encourage us as we seek out God’s purposes for our own lives today.

YOUNG...

“Now the word of the Lord came to me [Jeremiah, a teenager] saying, ‘Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.’” Because of his youth, Jeremiah was initially unsure of God’s call. The Lord touched his mouth and said, “Behold, I have put My words in your mouth.” His ministry would bring great personal sorrow (author of the book of Lamentations) over the disobedience of God’s people and his life would be constantly in danger. But God promised, “Do not be afraid of them, for I am with you to deliver you,” declares the Lord.”

...and OLD

The story of Abraham and Sarah (age 75 and 65 respectively) is a familiar one. They were promised, “And I will make you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great; and so you shall be a blessing; and I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse. And in you all the families of the earth will be blessed.” Even though they took matters into their own hands and made a historical mess of things, God still fulfilled His promise to them, a seed (at age 100 and 90!) that would ultimately bring man’s Deliverer! “Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, ‘And to seeds,’ as referring to many, but rather to one, ‘And to your seed,’ that is, Christ.”

Galatians 3:16

KNIGHTS FOR CHRIST

CHBC MEN'S MINISTRY

Save the Date for T4G

Our Men's Ministry will be taking a trip to Louisville, KY on April 10-13 to attend the Together for the Gospel conference. This conference is designed for pastors and church leaders, but our men and even some of our teenagers have loved this trip over the last few years.

1. The Preaching – Some of our favorite pastors will be preaching, such as Matt Chandler, David Platt, Mark Dever, John Piper, Al Mohler, and Ligon Duncan. There are also break-out sessions on important Christian issues.
2. The Food – When we retreat, we eat. We'll probably stop by the Bass Pro Shop in Springfield, MO to take advantage of their buffet. And the food in Louisville is great.
3. The Fellowship – A day on the church bus together always gives opportunity for jokes, stories, friendly debate, and discussion.
4. The Swag – Everyone who attends T4G will come home with a box full of free books.

Payment Details

The cost of the trip is $250, which will cover the transportation and lodging. That money will be due to the church after the New Year.

The church will cover the registration fee of every man attending.

Every man will need to bring his own money for all meals, incidentals, snacks, coffee, and the bookstore.

Greet and Treat - October 31st

Halloween causes much discussion between Christians. Should we celebrate or should we not? Our church for several years has done "Greet and Treat". Greet and Treat gives you an opportunity to minister to your neighborhood on Halloween. This is the one time of year that lost people come to your door and that your children are encouraged to go to their door. Don't miss this opportunity! Bags will be available on October 29th and have information about our church, a tract, and a treat included. (Feel free to add more treats to the bag, candy, small toys, etc.) Consider some intentional ways that you can share Christ with your neighbors during this evening!
